The Opportunity

Given the increased demands of customer focus and Island Timberlands continued commitment to its customers, the Marketing and Distribution Team at Island Timberlands is looking for candidates for the position mentioned above. Although log manufacturing, sorting and scaling knowledge are key, the job will also require understanding of marketing, logistics and distribution, with a drive towards maximizing value. Successful candidates would be expected to be mobile, as there is travel required to adequately cover all the geography of Island Timberlands holdings.

Important key personal strengths we are looking for are:

- a) Drive and desire to accomplish and grow within business sector;
- b) Good communication skills, both written and verbal are essential;
- c) Team player capable of handling a demanding work load, meeting tight timelines and dealing with specific goals;
- d) Self starter capable of recognizing opportunities and subsequent execution of duties to achieve improvements in results; and
- e) Evidence of on-going learning or development in the business.

The candidates would be expected to have at least five years of forest industry related experience with focus on Log Scaling and Quality control. Ideal candidates would possess certificates, diplomas or degrees in Forestry or Business administration/management. We are looking for individuals who recognize the value within the BC forestry resource and want to join a progressive growing company.
